

Thursday, June 20, 2019 • 12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.

There will be additional training for supervisors and managers from 1:30 p.m. - 2:00 p.m.

Have your employees attend this webinar to satisfy your practice's training obligations as required under New York State Law?

You and your employees will learn:

- What behaviors qualify as sexual harassment
- What responsibilities do employers have to prevent and address sexual harassment
- What laws protect workers
- What resources and options are available

Presenters:

Kimberly B. Malerba is a Partner at Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C., where she chairs the Employment Law and Digital Media Practice Groups, and is also a member of the firm's Litigation Department. Her areas of concentration include wage and hour compliance and investigations, employment discrimination and workplace harassment prevention, policy development and litigation, and independent contractor analysis. She has defended against claims such as sexual harassment, age, race, national origin and disability discrimination for various clients, both large and small.

Michael A.H. Schoenberg is Of Counsel to Ruskin Moscou Faltischek P.C., where he is a member of the firm's Litigation Department. Michael has substantial experience in both the federal and state courts, as well as before various arbitration and mediation forums, representing and counseling individuals and companies across many industries on a variety of complex commercial litigation issues, including shareholder/member disputes, dissolutions, business torts, trade secret misappropriation and unfair competition disputes, real estate disputes, and employment discrimination.

Nicole Della Ragione is an Associate at Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, P.C., where she is a member of the firm's Employment Law Practice Group. Nicole's area of employment law experience includes wage and hour disputes, misclassification of employee and independent contractor status, investigations by federal and state government agencies, defense of employment discrimination matters in federal and state court, preparation of employee handbooks, training and compliance. Nicole has defended against claims in administrative and court proceedings relating to sexual harassment, age, race, and national origin discrimination, restrictive covenant violations, confidentiality violations, and trade secret theft.

To Register: lgrasso@rmfpc.com

516-663-6652

1-2 days prior to the webinar, you will receive an e-mail containing your access information and any related material.

Suffolk County Medical Society

RMF
RUSKIN MOSCOU FALTISCHEK P.C.
Smart Counsel. Straight Talk.